Policeman Austin G. Thorne, who was arrested yesterday on a bench warrant, charging him with perjury and being an accessory to the crime of bribery with ex-Capt. Stephenson, will be tried next week in the Court of Oyer and Terminer. On Monday the District-Attorney will move that his trial be set for Wednesday. Thorne has no counsel as yet, and some one will probably be assigned to him by the Court.

It was the opinion of those in the District-Attorney's office that yesterday's proceedings in the Lexow Committee will furnish plenty of work for the District-Attorney, but no one who was in a position to speak with authority would be interviewed on the probability of indictments being found soon.

The Burgiar's Description.

The Burglar's Description.

In all the pawnshops the proprietors informed Smith that the man who had pawned the goods was a German, about thirty-eight years old, weighing about 170 pounds. In every instance he gave his residence as East One Hundred and Sixteenth street or One Hundred and Seventeenth street, this city.

On Dec. 5, when Detective Smith was making a tour of the pawnshops, he was told by one of the proprietors that the man he was looking for had been arrested in One Hundred and Fourth street by Policeman Shay.

This fact was reported to Chief Murphy, and at his request Capt. Brooks, of the One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station, had the prisoner, John Doe, committed to await an investigation by the Jersey City police.

The police were finally convinced that John Dee and Albert Alberts were one and the same by a letter he sent from the Tombs to a salcon-keeper named Schsuck, of Communipaw avenue, Jersey City, asking assistance. Silverware in the Coal Bin.

Alberts's house was finally searched by the police, and down in the coal bin, which was securely boiled and locked, about $500 worth of stolen property was found. Little by little evidence against him was found. His wife was not aware of it, but he had not had any work since last July. When he came in at 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning she believed he was returning from his work as a baker. She never understood, however, why he always went to the coal bit before going upstairs.

On one occasion when on his way home he was stopped by a policeman. He took the policeman to his home and had his wife identify him. This satisfied the officer and he departed.

On another occasion he was stopped, and, without a moment's hesitation, took the policeman to a baker-shop, had several bakers identify him as an honest man, and again was allowed to go free. Chief of Police Murphy this morning called on inspector Byrnes and requested him to have the sentence of Alberts, alias Doe, deferred. Chief Murphy is anxious to have him first sentenced in the Hudson County courts. If this cannot be arranged, Chief Murphy will take him in hand after he has served his term for the theft of the clock in this city.

Indicted in Hudson County. Indicted in Hudson County.

It is believed that he committed many of the basement burglaries which baffled the police of Capt. Brooks's precinct. Supt. Byrnes is of the opinion that when he was not at work in Jersey City he was entering houses in this city. He had no accomplies.

Alterts has been in this country only four years. He married a girl who was ianitrees of a flat in One Hundred and Sixteenth street, between Second and Third avenues. He was indicted late yesterday afternoon by the Hudson County Grand Jury.
